

A CENT A WORD

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE CHEAP—ONE 9 YEAR old mare, together with one rubber tired buggy—one heavy harness and one light harness. Inquire of LEE PAYNTER, Bethany, Pa. 1t

FOR SALE—THE OLD PERRY homestead at Steene; good house and barn, two large chickenries, from one to two acres of land, well watered, with plenty of fruit. Inquire of J. E. Haley, Steene, Pa. 1t

FOR SALE—BLACK LANGSHANS, Buff Orpingtons, Samatra Game Cockerels. Blooded stock. F. B. Nord, Honesdale, Pa. 1t

HOUSE AND LOT AT 1407 MAIN street, Honesdale, for sale. Black walnut bedroom suit also for sale. Inquire of Bentley Bros., opposite postoffice. 8telft.

FOR SALE—THE LATE MRS. S. M. Decker's dwelling situated at the corner of Court and Eleventh streets. Inquire of E. C. Mumford, Honesdale, or W. E. Perham, Pleasant Mount, Pa. 8t614

MISCELLANEOUS.

J. B. NIELSEN HAS TWO GOOD styles of post cards of Honesdale's new school building with printed history on card. 1t

FURS BOUGHT—HIGH CASH price paid. The undersigned will be in White Mills on Mondays and Fridays and at Waymart Wednesdays and Saturdays. F. D. STARK, Honesdale. 8t90ew2

BUY YOUR RUBBERS AND SHOES at Myers' shoe store. 1t

FOR RENT—TWO FIVE-ROOM tenements with modern improvements on Eleventh street. J. E. Richmond. 8t5tf

WHEN IN NEED OF CARRIAGES and sleighs don't forget E. T. Smith, 1120 Church street, who has the largest assortment in Wayne county to select from. 7t5tf

WANTED—FIRST-CLASS MAN TO take charge of acid room, at once. Keystone Cut Glass Co. 1t

TEN FIRST-CLASS SMOOTHERS wanted at the Deemer Bros. cut glass factory at Great Bend, Pa. 8t5wcol

LOCAL NEWS

Burton Holbert has moved his household effects into the Demer house, River street.

The price of tickets to the dedicatory exercises to the new armory will be $2 including supper with admission of 50 cents for extra lady.

Charles A. Emery, cashier of the Farmers and Mechanics Bank has purchased of Fred W. Kreitner the beautiful new residence at the corner of West and Fifteenth street recently erected by Kreitner Bros.

The helpers of the Baptist church will serve vegetable soup at 10 cents a quart Wednesday, Nov. 8, from 11 a. m. to 12 m. at the home of Mrs. George Ross, Dyberry place. Give orders over Citizen phone.

Successful vaccination of hogs has been done in parts of Adams and Dauphin counties this week by agents of the State Live Sanitary Board, and what promised to be serious outbreaks have been checked. Over twenty cases were discovered and the animals have been segregated.

Quality printing—that is the kind executed at The Citizen office. If you want an appropriate Thanksgiving Menu Card or Dance Program with some distinctiveness to it, send your order to or call at The Citizen office, Honesdale, where popular prices and prompt service prevails.

The annual Thanksgiving services will be held in the Central Methodist Episcopal church, Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. G. S. Wendell of the Honesdale Baptist church will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon. A program announcing the services will be printed later in this paper.

Three cases of diphtheria at Enola, all of the patients being school children, have caused the State Department of Health to place the schools there under quarantine. It is uncertain how soon they will be reopened, but the buildings are being thoroughly disinfected and early next week all of the school children will be examined.

Miss Eva Burket, Main street, last Wednesday evening pleasantly entertained at dinner in compliment of a number of her friends. The invited guests included: Misses Margaret Moran, Alice Murray, Regina Murray, Elizabeth O'Brien, Hattie Hambley, Vera Eberhardt, Hilda Dunn, Lulu Rickert, Martha Balles, Margaret Welsh; Messrs. Leo McGowan, Frank McGinniss, William Bunnell, George Burket, Charles Meyers, Howard Belbas, Geo. Rodgers, Chris Burket, Floyd Burnard, Ray Dibble, C. Smith.

Four hundred people enjoyed a rare musical treat at the Lecture Room of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, last Thursday evening when the Ithaca Conservatory of Music Company gave a delightful and varied program consisting of vocal and instrumental selections, with occasional reading interludes. Miss Florence E. Wilbur was exceptionally good in her interpretative readings. Miss Gertrude W. Lyons displayed a marvelous knowledge of technique in her piano selections. Miss E. Lillian Frost made the violin talk. The singing of Miss Grace Covey, mezzo-soprano, was enthusiastically received. Encores were fast and frequent and furious. F. A. Jenkins furnished the piano for the occasion, and Rev. C. C. Miller, the pastor, made a few appropriate remarks preparatory to the entertainment.

A party driving from Honesdale to Prompton on Sunday met and passed 28 automobiles. It certainly was a magnificent day for an outing.

At a box social at White Mills last Saturday evening $18 was realized. Proceeds to apply on a fund to purchase a dictionary for the White Mills school.

The following advertised letters remain at the Honesdale postoffice: Miss Emma Box, William Carter, Jos. Fuller, Mrs. H. B. Garrett, Herman Misch, C. A. Same. M. B. Allen, Postmaster.

Gilbert White, who is planning to go to Florida the 24th of this month, was taken suddenly ill at his home on East street and is now confined to his bed under the care of a physician.

Saturday night, Nov. 4, a merry load of young people went to Beachlake to surprise Mary Neal, but the town folks were ready to receive them. Charles Wells had made some of that aristocratic candy, oyster soup (which you can taste long after it is eaten) and other viands prepared for them, as only he knows how. All reported an excellent time.

Have you seen the Peary relic display in Murray Company's window? After considerable correspondence and effort upon the part of Murray Company, this enterprising firm has been successful in procuring some of the things which were used upon Commodore Peary's trip to the North Pole. The display is unique and contains the following articles: Sled, spear, harpoon, two rifles, snow shoes, besides a metal sheathed sign, walrus skull, narwal bone. The shoes were Peary's personal property; the sled is one of those used in relaying supplies on the trip from the ship to the pole and the other articles were used at different times by members of the expedition. Commodore Peary carried with him two complete sets of Keen Kutter tools, which the display advertises.

Henry Fasshauer, who for many years has been a well known and highly respected resident of Honesdale, died after a lingering illness at his home on Green street, Saturday night. Mr. Fasshauer was born in Commerback, Germany, 67 years ago. He came to America when a young boy and has practically made Honesdale his home ever since. He was a wood worker by trade and for a quarter of a century was a faithful and trusted employee of the Penwarden Manufacturing company. On account of sickness he was compelled to resign and during the past few years has lived a retired life. Mr. Fasshauer's wife, who was Miss Catherine Bussa, died fifteen years ago. He is survived by two daughters, and three sons, namely: Misses Amelia and Julia at home; Charles and Arthur, Honesdale; Edward, of Hancock, N. Y. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Lutheran church, of which Mr. Fasshauer was a consistent member. His pastor, Rev. C. C. Miller conducted the funeral services. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery.

PERSONAL

Miss Angie Fox, of Pittston, is visiting here.

Miss Julia Loomis is spending the week in New York City.

Fred L. Glehrer left Tuesday afternoon for New York City.

Mrs. O. T. Chambers is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Johnson, in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strongman motored to their New York City home on Tuesday.

C. M. Harris, proprietor of the Globe store, went to New York Tuesday on a business trip.

Miss Grace Wolf has returned to her home in North Scranton after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Noyes.

Prof. Mark T. Cressy, Hawley, spent Friday and Saturday as the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Harry A. Oday.

Mrs. D. W. Griffiths, Waymart, spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Miller, on East street.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Fargo of Wilkes-Barre, spent Friday and Saturday with friends and relatives in the Maple City.

Mrs. Wm. H. Hawken, East street, and her sister, Mrs. W. B. Coleman, Nyack, N. Y., are in Scranton for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welch, of Port Jervis, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Welch, returned home Tuesday morning.

Julius Freund, who is on the State Highway Surveying corps, headquarters at Carbondale, was among those to cast their vote in their home town Tuesday.

Harold Yerkes has returned from a Western trip in the interest of Kelly & Steinman. He will spend the forthcoming few weeks at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ray, of Bowling Green, Ohio, arrived in Honesdale, their future home, last week.

Mr. Ray, who is an expert China decorator, expects to have his studio in his home this winter, but is anticipating building in the Spring.

Evening Entertainments of the Teachers' Institute, High School Auditorium. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock. Reserved seats on sale at Chambers' drug store. Diagram open at 8 a. m. Monday evening, Nov. 13, at 8:15 p. m. The Wayne County High school Contest. Admission 25c. Reserved seats 10c extra.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 14 at 8:15. The Clifton Mallory Dramatic Co., presenting "David Garrick." Admission 35c. Reserved seats 40c and 50c.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 15, at 8:15. The Lotus Glee Club and Minnie Marshall Entertainer. Admission 35c. Reserved seats 40c and 50c.

Thursday evening, Nov. 16, at 8:15. Lecture—The Reign of the Demagogue, by John Temple Graves. Admission 25c.

NEXT WEEK IS THE TIME.

Great Preparations Are Being Made to Entertain the Governor Next Week.

The Chief Executive of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, John K. Tener, the man whom the people of this beautiful State look upon with pride, will be in Honesdale Wednesday, November 15, 1911, to attend and take part in the dedication exercises of the new State armory, located on Park street.

A meeting of the general committee in charge of the dedicatory exercises held its third session in the law office of Homer Greene last Thursday evening. In the absence of Chairman J. D. Weston, Attorney Homer Greene acted as temporary chairman. The minutes of last Tuesday's meeting were read and approved.

The following chairmen were present: Messrs. Greene, Hardenbergh, Murray, Kelly, Katz, Bodie, Gallagher, C. J. Kelley and Callaway. Chairman Homer Greene stated that while in Scranton on Wednesday he saw Colonel F. W. Stillwell concerning the attendance of the 13th Regiment.

The committee on invitations, William Katz, chairman, reported through Mr. Greene, who, while out of town, inquired about engraved invitations, that they would reach Honesdale the first of next week.

On motion of R. J. Murray, seconded by William Katz, it was carried that the general committee send out invitations to the dedicatory exercises of the new armory to the clergy of the town, Mayor, members of the borough council and contributors to the armory fund.

General Hardenbergh reported that the Governor and his staff would leave Harrisburg on the morning of the 15th at 8 o'clock and arrive in Honesdale about 3:15 that day. The distinguished guests will remain in Honesdale over night and will be present at the military ball in the evening. This will be a big drawing card, and undoubtedly will be the only time that Governor Tener will be in Honesdale in his official capacity. A large number of people, including the school teachers of Wayne county, will also be in annual institute in Honesdale that week. It was the sense of the general committee that a program be adopted and that Mr. Greene give the opening historical address relative to the armory.

In reference to a parade it was suggested that citizens of Honesdale having carriages be requested to donate them for that purpose. The procession will be formed as follows:

Military escort. Governor, Adjutant General, Brigadier Commander, General Officers with members of armory board, general committee and prominent Honesdale citizens in each coach.

On motion of General Hardenbergh, seconded by J. A. Bodie, Jr., it was carried that the price of tickets to the dedicatory exercises be $2, including supper, with admission of 50 cents for extra lady.

Tickets will be placed on sale at the different drug stores in town, so as to avoid the rush at the armory. The capacity of the armory is limited to a thousand people, so it behooves those desiring to see and shake hands with the Governor to purchase their tickets early. The sale promises to be large.

J. D. Murray, chairman of the dinner committee, reported progress.

Thomas Kelly, of the decoration committee, is planning for light decorations, in that the armory building will be on inspection for the Governor and other State officials.

In addition to the above another meeting was held Saturday evening in Attorney Greene's law office. Every member of the general committee was present and from the reports made by the different chairmen it is evident that preparations are forming nicely for a rousing celebration.

At the dedication of the armory in the afternoon Chairman Bodie stated that his committee had arranged for the singing of National songs during the exercises.

Arrangements are being made to seat the audience during the afternoon exercises.

Tickets for the ball in the evening will also be on sale at the armory Wednesday afternoon.

One of the drawing cards of Governor's Day will be the Governor's reception, which will begin promptly at 9 o'clock. Governor Tener and other distinguished guests will shake hands with the people as they enter the armory the evening of the ball. After the reception the Governor and one of Honesdale's fairest women will lead the grand march.

Program of exercises: Overture, Honesdale Band. Invocation, Rev. Wm. H. Swift, D. D.

Introductory address, John D. Weston, Chairman of Dedication Committee.

Historical Address, Homer Greene, Chairman.

Song, "Star Spangled Banner," chorus.

Presentation of Armory to Architects, Herman J. Woelkers, Contractor.

Presentation of Armory to State Armory Board, McCormick & French, architects.

Delivery of Armory in Custody of Company E, Major General C. Bow Dougherty.

Response, Captain C. J. Kelly. Song, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," chorus.

Address, Governor John K. Tener. Address, Adjutant General T. J. Stewart.

Song, "America," chorus. A HUNTING PARTY. William Wednbine, Ivan Lron and William Kelch returned home Saturday evening after a three days' hunt at Beachlake, having killed thirty-eight rabbits. They were also accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Wednbine who visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards.

The teachers will be with us next week.

MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL

(Continued From Page One).

gineer Lyons was appointed a committee to oil the plugs, where the hose connections are made, and to look after the repairs on the plug at Main and Fifth street.

According to a statement made by Mr. Penwarden there are forty-seven fire plugs in the County Seat. It was decided to have a tabulated list printed, showing the condition of the hose and the location of the plugs, and hung up in the engine rooms for future reference.

Frank W. Schuerholz, in behalf of his father, Tax Collector H. Schuerholz, appeared before the council in reference to the twenty-three exonerations accepted by the School Board, County Commissioners and Poor Board for the year 1909.

The list of exonerations was accepted and showed the surprisingly small sum of $53.56. Due to removals and other causes.

Applications from the attorney of the Torrey estate and from the Irving Cut Glass company asking for the issuing of scrip on the sidewalks recently laid on Park street, were read, and referred to the scrip committee for investigation and action.

The matter of non-resident dealers coming into the borough and carrying on business for a short time without a mercantile license was taken up for consideration. President Caulfield read the act passed some years ago by the Legislature, to this effect:

No. 127.—AN ACT. To provide for licensing and taxing foreign dealers in merchandise and their agents in the several cities and boroughs in the Commonwealth.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c. That hereafter the several cities and boroughs of this state shall have power to tax or license foreign dealers in merchandise, or their agents having no permanent place of business in any such city or borough, but temporarily engaged in selling and disposing of merchandise, either by wholesale or by retail, to an amount not exceeding the local taxes or licenses imposed on resident merchants engaged in a like business: Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to sales by sample.

Section 2. Cities and boroughs shall have power to enforce the provisions of this act by providing proper penalties by ordinance duly enacted.

Approved: The 24th day of May A. D. 1887.

JAMES A. BEAVER. It was decided, after some discussion of the matter, to get advice from the borough solicitor on the question.

Complaint was made that Eleventh street is in poor condition, and ought to be repaired. Street Commissioner Weidner was instructed to look after it.

Adjournment was made at 10:45 p. m.

The new modeled tailored suits at Menner & Co. stores are made on modern lines of best materials, latest cuts.

VETERANS HAVE A BANQUET.

Attorney Homer Greene Says He Believes in Peace.

Patriotism and Politics were happily blended in the after-dinner speeches delivered Friday night at the annual "camp fire" of Captain James Ham Post No. 198, G. A. R., Department of Pennsylvania, which was held in Freedom Hall with a goodly number of the glorious company of veterans of the Civil war and invited guests in attendance.

The early part of the evening was taken up with the enjoyment of an elaborate banquet served under the direction of the Captain James Ham Circle, No. 76, Mrs. William Clark president.

Commander Judge Henry Wilson was at his best as toastmaster, and introduced the post-prandial orators in his usual happy vein.

Homer Greene, Esq., who is always an honored guest at the celebrations of the veterans, was the first speaker of the evening. Mr. Greene prefaced his remarks by saying he didn't know when he had had such a busy time in the past thirty-five years as this Summer and Fall. He spoke of his efforts in trying to make the coming Armory dedication a memorable event, and said among other things:

"I feel it's right to maintain a military company here. When we consider what it cost in blood and treasure to organize and keep the government, we are not ready to give up our soldiery. I believe in peace. All nations should be at peace. I don't believe the time has come when we can let the soldier go. With Theodore Roosevelt, I believe in 'holding the peaceful hand out, but keeping the big stick ready.'"

Mr. Greene paused in his remarks to invite the young ladies, who had been serving the dinner to enter the banquet hall, declaring that they were entitled to hear everything that was said, and when they responded to his invitation, he said: "I didn't know that I could make a speech this evening. But I know that I can now."

"I have heard orators talk on the platform," he exclaimed, "when I've heard the country praised and boomed, and the country derided and defamed, but do you know through it all it's been done in the name of a party?"

"It's the country we got to think of and not so much the men. If these men who spend their time in trying to teach men, would instill into their minds something of the principles of the government as firm as the everlasting hills, what it means in terms of liberty and glory to be an American citizen—instead of crying 'Stop thief!' would try to instill the idea of patriotism that looks behind the platform back to the country as an entity—then we'd have very little to decry in the way of corruption."

"O London is a man's town. And Paris is a woman's town. But when you come to living There's no place like home."

"This America is our country. Let us be proud of it and worthy of it." (Applause.)

Comrade Walter W. Wood was called upon for a speech, but after remarking that he had been through two political campaigns recently and telling a few humorous stories, he retired in favor of M. J. Hanlan.

Prothonotary Hanlan, who has delivered more political speeches probably than any man in Wayne county, unobtrusively stated that he had made "several" speeches in his life time in different localities. He accounted for his love of speaking by the fact that he belonged to a somewhat loquacious race.

"These G. A. R. affairs," he said, "remind us of the glories of the past and remind us that we are citizens of the grandest country on earth."

Mr. Hanlan, in the course of his remarks, expressed his regret that Saturday, "Pension Day," would be the last time he would have the opportunity of meeting the veterans in an official position. Speaking on his approaching retirement from public life he said:

"I have served the people of my county in an official position for the past twelve years. Probably no man of my age has had as much experience and success in politics as I've had. I have had all the honors and compensations. I feel I've served the party as well as I could."

"I don't feel that there is any great fortune in politics. Farewell! To-morrow will be the last time I can do official business with you. But I shall always meet you as a friend." (Great applause.)

Hon. William H. Dimmick delivered an impassioned address, in the course of which he said:

"Out of the 2,841,000 of brave men of the nation, you are among the survivors. On the records of the War Department 2,841,000 men entered the service of their country, and to liberate four millions of human beings. It was the grandest effort ever made in behalf of humanity. No human effort ever compared with it."

"Where will you find a more noble record than that of the G. A. R. of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg? Who was first in that engagement? Wayne county soldiers were the first to shoot the first shot; and they stood there like bulwarks, like mountains of iron to resist the rebel host. There are no soldiers that stood more valiantly than the soldiers of our county."

"The average age of those 2,841,000 soldiers did not exceed twenty years. You took the life-blood of 20,000,000 people. You were the flower of the nation." (Applause.)

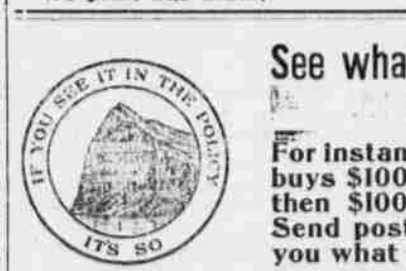

Comrade Isaac Ball brought the speech-making to a close by explaining that "it was soldiers from Wayne county that closed the fight at Gettysburg just at sunset of the third afternoon."

Of the thirty members of Captain James Ham Post, No. 198, G. A. R., these were present: Commander Judge Henry Wilson; senior vice-commander J. E. Cook; quartermaster Graham Watts; officer of the day, W. W. Wood; outside guard, Henry Parrish; bugler, John Fisher; chaplain, P. R. Collum; Wm. E. Justin, Isaac H. Ball, Michael Loercher, Honesdale; L. A. Lyboit, Damascus; Philip H. Reining, Cherry Ridge; Warner Lester, Seelyville; Daniel Kimble, Siko. Invited guests included: Hon. William H. Dimmick, Homer Greene, Esq., Prothonotary M. J. Hanlan, R. M. Salmon, Esq., Chester A. Garratt, Esq., C. E. Sandcock, J. M. Smeltzer.

Patriotic airs were played during the evening by an orchestra consisting of Charles McMullen, Kevin O'Brien and Andrew Cowles.

LEGAL BLANKS for sale at The Citizen office: Land Contracts, Leases, Judgment Notes, Warrantee Deeds, Bonds, Transcripts, Summons, Attachments, Subpoenas, Labor Claim Deeds, Commitments, Executions, Collector's and Constables' Bonds.

We print letter heads. We print bill heads.

"I feel it's right to maintain a military company here. When we consider what it cost in blood and treasure to organize and keep the government, we are not ready to give up our soldiery. I believe in peace. All nations should be at peace. I don't believe the time has come when we can let the soldier go. With Theodore Roosevelt, I believe in 'holding the peaceful hand out, but keeping the big stick ready.'"

Mr. Greene paused in his remarks to invite the young ladies, who had been serving the dinner to enter the banquet hall, declaring that they were entitled to hear everything that was said, and when they responded to his invitation, he said: "I didn't know that I could make a speech this evening. But I know that I can now."

"I have heard orators talk on the platform," he exclaimed, "when I've heard the country praised and boomed, and the country derided and defamed, but do you know through it all it's been done in the name of a party?"

"It's the country we got to think of and not so much the men. If these men who spend their time in trying to teach men, would instill into their minds something of the principles of the government as firm as the everlasting hills, what it means in terms of liberty and glory to be an American citizen—instead of crying 'Stop thief!' would try to instill the idea of patriotism that looks behind the platform back to the country as an entity—then we'd have very little to decry in the way of corruption."

"O London is a man's town. And Paris is a woman's town. But when you come to living There's no place like home."

"This America is our country. Let us be proud of it and worthy of it." (Applause.)

RAIN IN OCTOBER, 1911.

Stormed to measure eleven days, and trace five days 5.11 inches; 1910 five days and trace three days, .80 inch. Least recorded .69 inch in 1899; most recorded 7.95 inches in Oct., 1903. Average 3.22 inches for forty-one years. Eleven days were clear, six fair and fourteen cloudy; average 44 per cent. of sunshine, last year 69 per cent. Prevailing wind northwest.

Temperature, October, 1911: Highest, tenth 71 degrees; 1910, sixth 84 degrees; highest record in October, sixth, 1900, 88 degrees. Lowest temperature 29th, 18 degs.; lowest recorded 31st, 1887, and 24th, 1889, 14 degrees. Greatest daily range, ninth and tenth forty degrees, and least 18th, six degs.; average daily range 20.8 degrees; warmest day the 16th, mean sixty degrees; coldest days were the 28th and 29th; means 36 degrees; mean for month 46.8 degrees. Warmest, October, 1900, mean 54.4 degrees; coldest October, 1888, mean 41.3 degrees; average 44 years, 46 degs.

Killing frosts 8th and 13th, changed our beautiful green and sun-painted forest leaves to brown, and most of them fell on the 18th, during a heavy rain storm. Wild geese were flying south on the 30th, a flock of forty to fifty passing over my place.

THEODORE DAY. Dyberry, Pa., Nov. 1, 1911.

Christian Hartung, Washington, D. C. cast his vote in Honesdale on Tuesday.

The great election is now over.

Evening Entertainment of the Teachers' Institute, High School Auditorium.

Doors open at 7:30 o'clock. Reserved seats on sale at Chamber's Drug Store. Diagram open at 8 a. m.

Monday evening, Nov. 13, at 8:15. The Wayne County High School Contest. Admission 25c. Reserved seats 10c extra.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at 8:15. The Clifton Mallory Dramatic Co. presenting "David Garrick." Admission 25c. Reserved seats 40c and 50c.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 15, at 8:15. The Lotus Glee Club and Minnie Marshall Smith Entertainer. Admission 35c. Reserved seats 40c and 50c.

Thursday evening, Nov. 16, at 8:15. Lecture—"The Reign of the Demagogue," by John Temple Graves. Admission 25c.

Peil Says

Stop straining your entire system—quit coughing. Peil's Cold Tablets will break up your cold quickly. Then take Laxative White Pine Cough Syrup and fool the cough. An ideal combination. Try it.

"The Quality Store" THE DRUGGIST

See what $1 a week or less Buys in Life Insurance.

For instance, at age 35, 84 cents a week buys $1000 Life Insurance for 20 years, then $1000 cash to the policyholder. Send postcard to-day and we will tell you what it will do at YOUR age.

Ambrose A. Whalen